HYPEARTIST - BUDDHA GOES CLUBBING/HIGHSPEED LULLABY - DUSTED BREAKS RECORDS - DBR016 - OUT NOW!

First of all, Dusted Breaks would like to thanks all of you that voted for us at this years Breakspoll Awards, and thanks to you guys, we got nominated, so big upps to the DB massiive!! :)

This is the second & third installment from Russian up and coming producer Hypeartist, and keeping true to form, brings you the very best in prog breaks with a psy edge!!

Following the success of YNGA back in early 2009, Dusted Breaks very own Hypeartist goes even more deeper with this double header and warms your cockles up ready for his forthcoming album out late 2010!

For the remixes we have Nottingham's favourite DJ/Producer & Dusted Breaks Resident PAUL LYMAN who has a go at 'Buddha' & Washington DC's very own LEFT/RIGHT who has a pop at 'Highspeed Lullaby'

Both of the remixes are seriously dancefloor friendly and have been played all over the world in recent weeks, by some seriously hot names!!

Some DJ Feedback from this release

Wicked! both remixes are really heavy, dont really have a favourite but both the remixes are top trumps will feature them on my podcast....Nice one! - Richie Balboa - NSB RADIO & Breakspoll 2010 Best DJ Nominee

Paul Lyman is on point with this! Wanna hear more breaks from him! - Mr No Hands (Air Recordings, Mixmag Breaks Reviewer)

Left Right remix is more my thing on this package, pretty techy with quite a progressive feel too, sounding good! Thanks! - Hexadecimal (Distinctive)

Oh my goodness, Dusted Breaks goes buddhism!! thx for the great tracks! Both Originals, wicked epic style breaks as it's best! - B-Phreak (Westway, Fat, Mofo)

Original of Buddha Goes Clubbing is excellent! Also feeling Highspeed Lullaby with its cheeky sampling and similarly soundtracky vibe. Good stuff! - Kickflip (Fat, Broken Robot)
