DOWNBEAT 029

GUERILLA TECH – THE THUMP OF SCIENCE EP

With their first big impact on Downbeat, Guerilla Tech really packs it all in. This 8 track EP covers all styles and tempos with a successful formula in a thrillingly upbeat floor filling direction. With tunes that range from big driven tech breaks loaded with crossover potential, to some sultry female frenzy vocal cuts, this EP really brings forth some serious sound. Dropping the tempo, there's also others with a more fidgety / bouncy sound. Stepping away from the breakbeat side of the release, two dubstep tunes are tossed in to create a sonic soundscape of the highest order. Focusing more on the tech-fuelled side of breakbeat, this release is very dj friendly with a mature sound.
