

Glue @ The Horse & Groom, Shoreditch, 9th Jan!

Glue is back! After a brief break we return to the Horse & Groom on Saturday 9th January, once again bringing the ultimate party vibe to the intimate surroundings of Shoreditch's best venue. Glue's mix of stellar guest DJs and the ever amazing residents will play the usual mix of electro, breaks, house and rave in what is sure to be the first of many amazing parties in 2010!

Headlining this new year extravaganza is Last Japan, hailing from South London he has exploded on to the dance scene in the last year with the 19 year old growing from knocking up bootlegs in his bedroom to become one of the hottest and most in demand remixers in the ever mutating electro scene. Having burst on to the blogs with killer remixes of Lykee Li, Rapture and La Roux, it wasn't long before Last Japan's original productions began to rock the club and airwaves alike, with none other than Radio 1's Kissy Sell Out tipping him as one to watch!

We've also got Phil D, the man once known as uglymowgli who is making a name for himself both as an amazing DJ with a series of excellent gigs around London and as a top scribbler for dance music bible Mixmag. His mashed up brand of genres is sure to be just the thing the Glue crowd will love!

As always the Glue's residents, Hell Yeah and Bump will be filling out the lineup with their unique charms and special tunes. And then finally we have the honour of hosting Mittens last London gig before he jets off to the icy wastes of Canada, he's sure to put on a special and no doubt emotional show, so please try to keep tears to a minimum!

You can check out all the details on our Myspace along with links to all the DJs' pages - http://www.myspace.com/glue_london

And remember it's on the 9th January, 9pm to 4am, at the Horse & Groom in Shoreditch, London. Remember it's free before 11 so get there early! Though if you do miss out it's only £4 after which we think is a small price to pay!
