

“El Old-skoolico” aka ALT-A is back...this time in a powerful n' melodic mood! Everybody knows that despite considering himself and his team the protectors of Santa Monica area, he has no qualms about tipping off the police when the odds look unfavorable. On the Mexican day of the dead has a run-in with a masked employee. He is connected to an aztec warrior demon name Tezcatcatl, who prays on the hearts of heroes. This leads “El Old-skoolico” to wrestle with some personal issues when he learns about “Los Hermanos numeros”, a family of Five Mexican Luchadores who helped the helpless until one day four were slain by Tezcatcatl. He helps the last member “El Profe” aka XTREME PROJECT, the aforementioned employee, to discover the hero inside, which he lost when his family were killed. Old-skoolico, El Profe and his four brothers, temporarily back from the dead, battle and kill the demon. This leads to the death of El Profe, who is escorted into the afterlife by his brothers. There he researched the Shanshu Prophecy about a vampyre becoming human, and he managed to re-birth as a Luchador again!
