

Two more heavyweight producers join the Toast & Jam roster on this brand new remix package of EvilBeat - Twerking Bastard. Up first is a storming glitch hop remix by Optobot. Big synths, a funk guitar loop, and a tranced-out vocal ride over Optobot's signature heavy kicks and snares. The second remix comes to you from veteran Spanish producer Deibeat. He uses vocals from the original mix and adds in a vintage rave synth over a funky breakbeat groove to give this track a proper breaks rinse out. Check 'em out!
