The priest did not speak to them when they wore shorts but he did not denounce them a~d when they wore trousers in -the evening the three of them bowed to each other.. "I'll go up and write the letters," the girl said and she got up , and smiled at the waiter and went out of the cafe. "Monsieur is going to fish?" the waiter asked when the young man, whose name was David Bourne, called him over and paid him. "I think so. How is the tide?" "This tide is very good," the waiter said. "I have some bait if you want it." "I can get some along the road." "No. Use this. They're sandworms and there are plenty." "Can you Come out?" "I'm on duty now. But maybe I can come ol!-t and see how you do. You h~ve your gear?" "It's at the hotel" "Stop by for the worms."

At the hotel the young man wanted to go up to the room and see the girl but instead he found the long, jOinted bamboo pole and the basket with his fishing gear behi~d the desk where the room keys hung and went back out into the brightness of the road and on down to the cafe and out onto the glare of the jetty. The sun was hot but there was a fresh breeze and the tilie was just starting to ebb. He wished that he had brought a casting rod and spoons so that he might cast out across the flow of the water from the canal over the rocks on the far side but instead he rigged his long pole with its cork and quill float imd let a sandworm float gently along at a depth where he thought fish might be feeding.
