

DeiBeat - Hit The Dancefloor Remixed OUT NOW

Posted by thegulfgateproject - 2020/12/09 00:38

We've got two smoking hot remixes of DeiBeat's Hit The Dancefloor here. First up is Brighton, UK's very own Specimen A. This remix employs the use of the female lead vocal in the breakdown and then drops in on a gnarly bass line that serves as the centerpiece of this remix project. For the second remix, we brought on our man Perfect Kombo and he delivered a remix featuring some rave piano stabs, top end synths, and some fresh male vocal leads to round out the package. Two huge dance floor bombs for your next set right here!
