After the success of the first single, Used & Abused are back with a hard-hitting second installment, and there's something for everyone on this package.

M8 MAGAZINE *RECOMMENDED*

'Elite Force's brand new label is only on its second release is already leading the charge. For those who've been reading this breaks page for a while will know how much I harped on about Lot 49 being the most exciting new label when it launched but Shack's Used & Abused Imprint IS the new Lot 49, fucking fantastic! A breath of fresh air for this scene that many would agree is getting as stale as an old mans wee-stained pants. 'Return...' is a quality tech – driven beast, with fat synths and a big overall sound but to be fair, as much as the original is quality, it's all about the three (yes count 'em) PHAT remixes. First up Vandal goes more stomp heavy which is big but it gets better, Double Black (who the hell are these chaps?) go minimal techy on our 'ass and deliver a fucking MASSIVE remix bassline, proper wonky biznizz, whilst new-Swede-on-the-block Blende (watch out for him) kills it with an uber heavy electro remix. Take note people Used & Abused have just raised the bar in quality.'

DJ REACTIONS

"Bang on the money - Top Stuff"

"The Double Black mix of Elite Force You is still one of my favourite tracks of this years and this is equally beautiful. Not too overstated, just happy in it's own digital skin, wobbling away with all manner of odd noises for company. Excellent stuff, love it."

"Brilliant follow up release. Massive support for the Vandal & Blende mixes"

"Love the Double Black mix! so dark n sexy!"

"Return to Mindfunk really reminds me of The Plumps and Trouble Soup meeting at the gym for a steroid contest. This release is blazing for the crossover kidz and should really knock some socks off over this summers beach parties in Miami and Ibiza."

"Double black remix - WOAH!!! sounds like an army of ants playing table tennis on an ice rink. Love it. will be rinsing."

" This is amazing. A brilliant selection of styles and grooves with a bit of something for everyone vibe to it. I cant pick just one mix on this that stands out more than the others as they all stand out. A brilliant release from a amazing label."

"The original is groovy a hell and builds up nicely (*applause* SOOO good!!), and the Vandel mix is a chunky peak time monster, and the Double Black Remix is AMAZING too, REA-HEE-HEAL-LY ideal for dementedness."

"yes, yes, yes massive release!! not sure which is my favorite mix. Played the Blende mix at a massive Ministry of Sounds Session party last week, 8000 people went made to it!!!"

"Some great new music coming from Elite Force! Charting at 7."

Many thanks for all the support :)
