The second outing on this highly promising label. This time France's finest Maelstrom shows just why he has a golden reputation when it comes to his production talent. Youthstar on the vocals combines excellently with Maelstrom's beats, which move between a break and 4/4 keeping the track interesting and full of energy! 4/5

The second release and woooh this is a biggie that will appeal to breaks heads and the likes of Crookers , Fake Blood etc; that urban booty bounce bass line house electro thang that is ever so popular these days and rightly so. Three mixes to chose from, the first a breaks house crunk b boy hybrid, MC urging you to 'bounce to this, and you will, the second with live marching percussion, 70's funk soul interludes and straight into a Teutonic pounding hip-tech-bass-hop-electro-house-breaks smash up of epic proportions. The Redux rmx, 4/4 peak time, bounce with a dash of speed garage bass lineall tied together with MC Youthstar giving it some B Boy urban-tude.

We Likes all mixes!!

DJs SUPPORT

Aquasky (Passenger / 777 / UK)

yeah man, am feeling this and would like to request some vinyl if you are still supporting the genre, nice grooves

Lee Mortimer (Dubsided / Frontroom / Wearhouse / UK)

i like the Is This House Mix. will definitely fit in with what i play.

Slyde (Fingerlickin / UK)

thanks for the tune m8,i nicked it off plaza de funk b4 ya sent it,loving the main mix, really fat, keep up the good work man

Rico Tubbs (Menu Music / Finland)

Feeling both mixes - but the 2-step vibe of the original takes the crown in the end! Relevant breaks is hard to find but this is a winner! Radio&dj support!

Dopamine (Lot 49 / Title Fight / AU)

Loving the Is This House mix. Will give it a few spins and also : Crookers, NAPT, Drumattic Twins, Heavy Feet, Jay Cunning, Beat Monkeys...
