OUT April 20th!

Maschinen Musik 13 - Solar Chrome: Controlled Reality

Solar Chrome - Controlled Reality

Solar Chrome - Cellular Automaton

Maschinen Musik 13 brings the long awaited next outing of Solar Chrome, who with tracks like Nebula and Crushmachine has steadily built a fan base for his trademark minimalist yet powerful brand of machine funk.

“Controlled Reality” kicks off right in that direction, deploying devastating drums, creepy vocals, warm pads, twisted sounds, and bass drops that will take you right away. TrueSkool Electro that should put a smile in the face of purists and all those with a taste for good music that was made with and that sounds like machines.

“Cellular Automaton” stays true to this concept and adds even more drive using bass heavy chords, nervous bleeps, and complex synthesizer workouts. Music in the tradition of Kraftwerk and Anthony Rother, that never copies but takes the sound to its next logical level. Not to be missed...
