This is a steady new release from Russia based XSSR Music as Boonos turns out a chuggy thrasher of a tune and label boss Mars tears into it with his tried and true Tearing style! The Original has a great bouncy bass line and some really spacey synths that set a great pace for the tune. On the 'flip' Mars grinds this floor jammer up and spits out pure growly filth! These two tunes are a wicked addition to the summer line up and yet another notch on XSSR's bed post.
