

FREE DOWNLOAD: Love Is A Drug (Left/Right Remix) - The Kickdrums

Had a lot fun with this one...ended up sounding more rock n roll than we were expecting. We played electric bass and synths ourselves, plus Chris sings a little backup during the bridge. Funky guitar and Lead vocals are from the original. Enjoy!

Left/Right have been busted dealing yet another primo remix...this time joined by Ohio partners in crime The Kickdrums. "Love Is A Drug," a rocking breaks banger, will inject your veins with a heavy dose of electro. Prepare to get hammered by pounding rhythms, fried on high-adrenaline synths, and wasted by bass so intense it should be illegal. L/R cook the indie titans' original into a dancefloor hit that will find you in the gutter itching for more. Get your fix on iTunes next month!

"Dallas' own Left/Right have yet again knocked another one fiercely out of the park! If you aren't already doing so, keep an eye out for these two!"

"Rockin tune! Definitely will be droppin this one. Nice work as always guys!"

-B-Ju (Equinox Records, Germany)

you can check out the original here on The Kickdrums' page. these guys are some very talented hip hop producers (worked with 50 cent, talib kweli, etc) turned indie/alternative artists. Was a real pleasure working with them.
