(DBR007) BreakZhead - Goin On - Dusted Breaks Records

In the world of electronic music Vyacheslav Kogan (Russia, Vladivostok) is known as BreakZhead. His career as a musician started in 2003

The first official release appeared in 2006 the compilation "Introducing. BreakZhead" was released by the US-based label Nulogic Records, it included tracks "In Line" and "My Way" with strong trance motives.

Works of BreakZhead started dragging attention of famous DJs from all over the world, Vyacheslavs music was frequently heard on different radio stations, like: DI.FM, iBreaks, KISS FM, Record FM, NuSkoolBreaks Radio, NuBreaks.com and others... With steady growth of popularity his music drove support from well-known artists of the breaks scene.

Describing BreakZheads contemporary music is not simple its a mixture of vivid acid UK Breaks with high-quality melodies, which express the newest tendencies of Russian breaks producers.

This package includes a beautiful, flowing original track from the man himself. Which includes a kick ass vocal, dirty bassline and some phat as fK sythns!! This has seen support from all corners of the globe and is one of many great productions set for release this year from the young Russian. Big Support coming from Lady Waks on this one!

The remixes include Bristol's legendary Kingpin Head Honcho, Kraymon with an epic 9 plus minutes of sheer Broken goodness that will have you up outta your seat and thirsty for more! The use of pure broken beats and basslines in this track make it a must for all Breaks purists! It has also seen plays at Glastonbury 2009 and the mighty Glade, and has support from Far Too Loud & General Midi Jurassik's Remix stays very true to the original but without the use of the vocal, and has a bit more a tougher edge to it than the others. This guy is all fairly new to the production scene, but doesn't dissappoint with this little ditty, that has received DJ support from Mr No Hands, Adrian Barrcode and many more.....

Not content with that, we bring you another special remix of this tune coming in the shape of Kickflip. This takes the prize for the most funk up, dirty assed Dusted Breaks Remix yet! In true Kickflip fashion, he teases and manipulates us with his use of the vocals and build ups and drops us into a floor shaking bassline frenzy, that will keep ya on ya toes for the entire duration.....GUARANTEED!! This has had positive comment from pretty much every DJ/Producer and broadcaster it has reached!
