Anarchy Rice - Feels Real Good (Original mix)

Anarchy Rice is back with another storming funky breaks anthem! "Feels Real Good" combines chunky breaks, slap bass and a barrage of fat synthlines into a track that is guaranteed to get everyone from your grandma to the local Jehova's Witness Society swinging their pants! Epic and comedy breakdowns spice up the main groove whilst the enormous bassline pounds out the dirty funk. Set to be a one of the breaks tunes of the summer, sitting comfortably in a playlist of anyone that likes their breaks like their werthers originals: creamy and uncommonly good!

Anarchy Rice - Oi (Original mix)

The b-side sees Acidphonic venturing once again into the realms of four to the floor, this time with more of a fidget approach. As soon as the first bassline kicks in, you know "Oi!" is the kind of track you can't help but nod your head to! Various basses fuse together and the sound builds until, after the breakdown, we're left with a pounding, squelchy drop that'll set any dancefloor on fire! Check out the innovative lead parts too, including a forklift truck!!
