The Re:Connect Show is proud to present another exciting instalment, hosted by yours truly, and tonight featuring an exclusive guest mix from Magik Bullet head honcho Dam0! It's a rather tasty mix indeed, and completely showcases the sound of Magik Bullet.

Damo has been DJ'ing for over 6 years. A computer science graduate and all round geek, he was lucky enough to be around when Plymouth had a dance music scene, but left for London to persue job prospects and got totally caught up in the club scene. Partying @ nights such as Metalheadz @ the Blue note, Chew the fat in Brixton, The Cross in Kings cross and Raindance gave him the bug for clubbing and nurtured his love for electronic dance music.

Moving back to Plymouth, where all the nights were hard house and drum and bass orientated, he was sad to see that certain types of music were not represented adequately. Together with Chris and Will, Magik Bullet Theory was born and has been running monthly since July 2004. Going to nights such as Digital Blasphemy was inspirational and showed how to organise a real party.

Recently his productions have started to mature, thanks to support from Will and others and has attracted interest from the nationwide breakbeat scene. Definitely one to watch out for in the future. His DJ'ing style isn't limited to breaks, throwing unexpected tunes into the mix across genres.
