STRONGARM SESSIONS :: Tuesday 11 December

Featuring guest mixes from AMB & Tom Real

No mix from me this week, but a great chance to showcase two great emerging talents with exclusive mix sets from two of the hottest producers on the block right now, Tom Real & AMB. The next show will be airing on Xmas Day and will be the customary Strongarm Xmas Special, featuring mixes from myself and the one & only Dylan Rhymes. For those who are otherwise engaged with Xmas, this will be repeated as the first show in the New Year, after which the archives will be made available. Thanks for all your support during the course of this year - the show goes from strength to strength.

I'd also like to take the opportunity to let you know that the brand new Elite Force single 'Used & Abused' is now available exclusively on Beatport from today. It features mixes from Zodiac Cartel, Klaus Hill & Dopamine and Speculum and has received massive DJ support from a wide range of playaz, including the likes of Meat Katie, Crystal Method, Infusion's Jamie Stevens ("The Zodiac Cartel mixes are making me sex myself!"), Jody Wisternoff (Way out West), Lee Coombs, Soul of Man, James Talk, Deepgroove ... and the list goes on. Ironically, given the title of the EP, the label has had to change it's name to U&A to avoid confusion with another company trading as Used & Abused. Your support on this one will be massively appreciated :)
