Broken & Uneven and Electric Minds are proud to present this years first set of showcases with one of the most exciting record labels to evolve in recent years.

Ostgut Ton is – of course – intimately linked to Berghain and Panorama Bar in Berlin and with the ever growing popularity of Sub:stance's residency at Berghain, we're very pleased to be able to present the Ostgut Ton & Sub:stance together for the first time in London.

The full line up brings Ben Klock, Ryan Elliott, Tama Sumo, Scuba, Shackleton & Kuedo to town with the party taking place in an amazing new venue that houses two large warehouse rooms, separate bar area and full facilities.

Like last years Ostgut Ton showcase at the Red Gallery, Sound Services will be providing their expertise and to enhance your audio experience we'll once again acoustically treat the venue.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION: This event is advance tickets only, tickets are available online: once they are gone, they're gone

So basically we are too excited to keep it a secret any longer so here are the venue details for tomorrow:

Tomorrow's party takes place in both Venue 1 & the Print Rooms of

Hackney Downs Studios
1 Downs Road
London, E5 8QJ

The entrance is from Downs Road and opposite the Jet Petrol Station. Nearest transport is Rectory Road & Hackney Downs train stations

There are some important things to remember ahead of Thursday:

You must bring a print out of your bar code and e-ticket. No print out, no entry. A screen grab of your ticket from your phone will not work.

It is a cash only bar.

There will be a fully staffed cloakroom.

Thanks and look forward to seeing you tomorrow :)
