

Stanton Sessions 07.04.12 @Cable

DJs: Stanton Warriors, A.Skillz, Cyantific, Rack n Ruin

Room2: To be announced...

The Stanton Warriors continue there bass assault on London Bridge with another Stanton Sessions at Cable. Always a raucous affair and this show will be much the same with a true party rocker heading the bill. Label boss, producer and DJ extraordinaire A Skillz is a firm favourite here at Cable. His spliced, scratched and mashed up beats cause dancefloor mayhem spanning funk, soul, hip-hop and all forms of beats & bass. Next up we have London's own Breaks trooper Cyantific. Causing quite a stir with his space age tech, funk and breakbeat fusions we're sure the Stantons faithful will dig this sound. And so to the ruins... or Rack N Ruin to be accurate. Their Facebook profile reads 'non-genre specific bass music' and frankly we can't put it any better - expect oodles of bass with no boundaries. Of course we will also be welcoming back bass badmen the Stanton Warriors as they hold fort on this momentous date! Watch this space for room 2 guests...

£10 Early bird, £12 Advance tickets, £12 Student OTD, £15 OTD
