Venue Details and Set Times.

Saturday's party will be taking place at the Loft Studios, 77-81, Scrubs Lane, Kensal Green, London, NW10 6QU <http://www.loftstudios.co.uk/studios.php>

When we put together this event at the start of the year we had originally planned for it to take place at a location in East London which would provide us with an outside space for the day and an intimate warehouse for the evening. However, due to the over zealous restrictions imposed by Tower Hamlets council around the Olympics we kept coming up against the same obstacles. In the end it has been a very frustrating three months - we have actually had to move the event three times. Its not the first time we've had to change venues at the last minute so we were not going to give up the battle to secure a suitable premises so in an attempt to find the best possible space for this event, we were not prepared to sacrifice the quality of the space for location.

Fortunately therefore, we were able to secure a date at The Loft Studios which really is one of the most stunning venues available in London. There will obviously be a change as we move from East to West but rather than getting embroiled in the debate on having to move to a new part of London, we're really looking forward to utilising the courtyard and studios to its full potential. Of course the great British weather may play a factor on the day but whether it's raining or the sun is shining we are prepared.

Ame, Sven Weisemann, Bnjmn & Kowton are all on board and we'll be kicking off from 4pm sharp, set times are below. Wrist bands will be handed out on the night should you want to utilise the readmission. The overground from Shoreditch, Dalston takes you directly to Willesden Junction and from there its a short walk to the Loft Studios.

Set Times for Saturday:

Courtyard

4pm to 6pm – Bad Passion / Namedrop

6pm to 8pm – Kowton

8pm to 10pm – Sven Weisemann

Studio

10pm to 12.30am – Dolan Bergin

12.30am to 1.30am – BNJMN (Live)

1.30am to 4am – Ame

Looking forward to seeing you all this Saturday
