On Friday 24th August the opening party of Broken & Uneven's The Hydra series takes place, hosted by Berlin's Ostgut Ton – bringing over their label mainstays Marcel Dettmann, Marcel Fengler, Prosumer and Nick Hoppner to fly the flag for one of the most-revered Techno labels in recent times. We have also enlisted special guest Surgeon to join them and as fans of his lengthy body of work can attest, he pulls no punches when it comes to the art of Techno. This first night also sees some very special live art – an on-the-night mural by infamous street artists (and recent subject of TV's 'The Apprentice') Pure Evil, whose signature prints are the perfect example of the high standard of creativity that's bursting from East London's pores right now..

Ostgut Ton venue announcement:

<http://img4.imageshack.us/img4/1307/blackstudio1.jpg>

We are very excited to finally announce that the venue we have chosen for Ostgut Ton this Friday is Studio Spaces, Wapping. The venue has recently been refurbished to the highest standard to create a state of the art events space. Consisting of two rooms, plenty of toilets and bars, we feel that is it the perfect venue for the party. Sound Services will once again be providing the sound so you can expect the same quality from the previous Ostgut Ton events.

Address:

Studio Spaces
Unit 2
110 Pennington Street,
London E1W 2BB

The venue is a 5 minute walk from Shadwell Overground Station, which is two stops from Shoreditch High Street and one stop from Bank.

There are some important things to remember ahead of Friday:

We will be using the new RA Bar Code Tickets so you must bring a print out of your tickets. No print out, no entry.

There will be credit card machines and a cash back facility.

There will be a fully staffed cloak room.

There will be a very limited amount of tickets available on the door but please arrive early to avoid big queues and guarantee entry.

Thanks and look forward to seeing you on Friday!
