Zedd (aka Anton Zaslavski), being born into a family of musicians, began playing the piano at the age of four. After several years of learning to master the piano, Anton began playing the drums in a band, and composed and produced numerous rock songs in his band's own studio. In 2009 he began producing electronic club music, to much and quick acclaim. After a period of only a few months he attained a remarkable level and went on to win two Beatport remix contests, the "Armand Van Helden / Strictly Rhythm Remix Contest", and the "Fatboy Slim / Skint Remix Contest"! This was the foundation for Zedd to release several official remixes for artists such as Lady Gaga, Black Eyed Peas, P. Diddy, Skrillex and Swedish House Mafia on labels including mau5trap, Interscope, Atlantic and EMI. His hit single "Dovregubben" held the #1 position on Beatport's Electro House charts for four weeks. One of the reasons for this rapid development is undoubtedly Zedd's unique and highly recognizable style of composition. It stands out as very detailed and carefully produced Electro House, very playful and at the same time remarkably catchy. Zedd is definitely an artist to look out for in the future...

Jordan Atkins-Loria, better known as Lucky Date, is a 21 year old DJ/producer with his roots in San Francisco. Lucky Date relocated to Chicago in order to claim his territory in the world of electronic dance music. The music produced by Lucky Date is versatile and fresh with the abilities to connect to a variety of listeners and unify entire audiences.

Lucky Date released on Big Fish Recordings which is known around the world as one of the leading electronic music labels. Lucky Date has put an impressive amount of time into creating official and one-of-a-kind remixes for Zedd, Kimberly Caldwell, Spencer & Hill, Vhs or Beta, Lazy Rich, The Crystal Castles and Trash Yourself, among many others. He has also produced unofficial remixes of songs by Skrillex, E-40, LMFAO and M.I.A. Although most of Lucky Date's tracks are considered aggressive, bass-filled productions, he has produced tracks in the progressive house, tech house, dutch house and dubstep sub-genres. Much of Lucky Date's music can be found on Beatport and Sound Cloud.

Lucky Date's move to Chicago brought career-altering opportunities and a new home for his music. He has secured an international fan base by touring in South America, Europe, Asia, Australia, Canada and New Zealand. Thanks to his talents and consistent creativity, Lucky Date has grabbed the attention and support of artists Excision, Datsik, Zedd, Porter Robinson, David Guetta, Tommy Lee, Spencer & Hill, and Chuckie. Thirty completed tracks are ready for download and many more are in the works. Lucky Date's official remix of Datsik's "King Kong" is housed by Subhuman Records. Lucky Date's energetic and clever productions are paving the way for a successful music career.
