Manchester's most forward thinking club night, illumiNaughty returns with a BANG for their extra special 25th Chapter, and what occasion could be more suitable for their distinctive brand of full-on party music and theatrically-fused mischief than HALLOWEEN?

This multi-sensory audio feast will take place at SANKEYS, voted by DJ Magazine as the World's Best Club and home to three rooms of Funktion One sound. A night of first-class clubbing awaits...a thrilling concoction of performers, décor, unparalleled production and of course illumiNaughty's legendarily up-for-it crowd.

This is one spine-chilling Halloween gathering not to be missed...

This three room extravaganza will not only see a hefty line-up of the finest Psy-Trance, but will also showcase a large measure of banging electro, psychedelic breakbeat, and groovy progressive sounds. Headliners include Serbian trance maestro Freaked Frequency, UK Bass legend Far Too Loud, hi-tech psy-trance newcomer Sonic Species as well as a mighty spectacular schedule of residents and up-and-coming DJs from the British party scene.

The IllumiNaughty tribe promise a night of costumed masquerade filled with off-the-wall multimedia surprises; a digital delight the likes of which SANKEYS has never seen before! This is an absolute must for party-people of all persuasions; so get your potions out and your costumes on and share in the weird yet wonderful world of illumiNaughty.

Best costumes will win Prizes on the night!!!
