Chew The Fat! x Jet Jam | Cable | 16.11.2012

This November, deep in the heart of London Chew The Fat! are joining forces with Star Slinger's international club night Jet Jam for a night set to shake Cable to its very core!

After the HENCH Recs crew well and truly blew the roof off Cable back in September, we're back with more cutting edge sounds from some of the brightest names in electronic music. Putting the world class Nova Sound System through its paces are dubstep heavyweights Bare Noize, fresh from their massive US Tour, along with Fat! favourites BAR9. They're joined by Brighton's bass kingpin High Rankin and a special back to back set from DC Breaks and Document One – not to be missed! Rounding off proceedings in the main room are Bullet Train head honcho Marco Del Horno, along with an exciting new purveyor of bass fuelled party music, Danish dynamo Eloq, who makes his UK debut.

And we're very proud to announce that Room 2 will be brought to you by Star Slinger's globe-trotting party brand Jet Jam!

Self-proclaimed vibe consultant Star Slinger heads up proceedings with his eclectic party sound that's seen him headline clubs and festival stages the world over. He's joined by Foamo, fresh from a summer of tearing up Ibiza at his residency at Space, and young upstarts Bondax, the duo behind massive summer jams 'Baby I Got That' & 'You're So'. With no emphasis on BPM or genre, prepare yourself for 110% vibes! Up and comer Pále and the Seedy Sonics DJs complete the line-up.
