Posted by Deformaty - 2012/12/08 11:09

This insane release is a straight smasher! Heavenly Plague is a trickster. It begins with some dreamy synth lines and arp action. But soon builds and drops into an aggressive monster! Growling, unrelenting bass and destructive punchy drums. This tune is a must have for your secret weapon library, guaranteed to rock any dance floor. Starship is just as ominous. The breakdown features spacey, cinematic synths, and then it hits! Schizophrenic bass lines quickly take over. It's a full on tear out assault! Both tunes feature Deformaty's complex and deep style of breaks that can leave a crowd stunned and screaming for more. Get this killer release now!
