MAIN ROOM

Horizon Wireless: FUNK & HOUSE

<https://soundcloud.com/horizonwireless>

Horizon Wireless blends psychedelic break-beat music with a variety of other styles including trip-hop, minimal tech-funk, and psy-breaks to create high energy and soulful dance sets. Seamlessly using elements from all across the sound spectrum, unique mixes are woven together through each show, creating a storm of soul smashing beats, titillating harmonies, and wet melodies. This sonic tsunami can easily induce multiple crowdgasms, so bringing a towel to shows is not only recommended, but encouraged as well.

Brandon Morales: HOUSE

<https://soundcloud.com/dj-brandon-morales>

Nuyorican Jamaican, born & bred in Brooklyn; DJ Brandon Morales is carrying on the legacy into which he was born; the DJ Diamond Life. As a precocious child, he began blending beats & vocals at age 11, on wax in true school fashion; with an Urei 1620 Rotary Mixer & pair of Technics sl1200's under the tutelage of his father; superstar DJ, revolutionary remixer and Grammy award winning record producer. Based in South Florida, this next generation of House has honed his prowess to innovatively, smoothly and soulfully mix groovy dance music, which quickly became his recognizable DJ style in the Miami underground club scene.

Remove Hyphen: ACID HOUSE

<https://soundcloud.com/tanja-removehyphen>

Sassy selections, with throbbing, lush bass and dazzling chords, Remove Hyphen crafts sets that are thoughtful and complex--creating a cathartic dance floor rich with sub-aquatic beats.

Chris Patrick: HOUSE

<https://soundcloud.com/chrispatrick>

From humble roots as a teenage bedroom DJ in sub-rural Pennsylvania, Chris began playing out regularly at clubs and bars while still a minor in Philadelphia in 2001. Since relocating to New York City in 2007, he gained popularity as a resident DJ during the resurgence of the illustrious SOUP parties at the now defunct Sullivan Room, and now holds down regular gigs throughout the city at Cielo, Output, Verboten, TBA Brooklyn, The 303 @ Louie & Chan, and more.

Carmine Tony: TECHNO

<https://www.facebook.com/CarmineTonyBasil>

New York DJ with an Italian soul, Carmine Tony has brought his lifelong love of sharing music to life. Representing a perfect balance of the classic rhythm that shaped a movement and the current emotion that pulsates our city, Carmine looks to take you on a new journey with each set.

BASEMENT

Big Ears & Jamalski: JUNGLE

<https://soundcloud.com/djbigears>

DJ Big Ears has been one of the fastest rising players ever to hit the jungle/drum and bass arena. His ever evolving career has proved to be an unstoppable force in New York City and beyond because his unmatched track selection isn't limited to just one genre. Fitting the definition of a DJ in the truest sense, Big Ears creates an untouchable blend of oldskool jungle, ragga, mashup, breakcore, hardcore, speedcore, reggae, and hip hop that breaks all stereotypes of a jungle DJ and appeals to not only junglists, but anyone who comes into contact with his quick mixes and professional production that constantly circulate among the underground music scene.

Wavewhere: BREAKBEAT

Wink-E: HARD DANCE

<https://soundcloud.com/wink-e>

Since 2010 Brooklyn's DJ WINK-E has constantly broke down barriers in today's Electronic Dance Music scene by expanding the reach of Harder music to a new generation of partygoers. WINK-E helped bring the harder sounds to main stages, and also brought in a new demographic of people into the scene in NYC. WINK-E is also known for surprising the crowd with his sporadic use of mixed EDM ranging anywhere from Hardcore, Hardstyle, Jumpstyle, UK Hardcore and even sometimes a surprise Jungle tune mixed in. WINK-E has undeniably experienced a meteoric rise since his debut in NYC.

Tim the Enchanter: BREAKBEAT

<https://soundcloud.com/tim-the-enchanter>

Breakbeat evangelist Tim The Enchanter (Vitamin B, Brooklyn) first discovered electronic music in the warehouses of NYC, Philly, Baltimore and DC in the mid 90's. He bought some crappy 4th-hand turntables and a Radio Shack mixer and hasn't looked back since (although his gear has improved). After a decade of spinning to a packed bedroom of two cats, Tim made the jump to playing for humans and quickly became a resident at Vitamin B, NYC's longest-running monthly breaks party. In his spare time he enjoys fiddling with Ableton and building temporary hot tubs.

Illexxandra: BOOTY/GLOBAL BASS

<https://soundcloud.com/illexxandra>

Brooklyn-based DJ/producer ILLEXXANDRA (illexxandra.com) brings a consistently fun party vibe, drawing from the worlds of funk, UK future sound, global bass, electro swing, and classic club culture. Her sets draw you in with innocent joy, smack you around with raw ferocity, and then set you down gently with deep musical knowledge. She'll kill it with an hour of bangers, or take you on a five-hour journey into sound.

Live Ammo: PSYTRANCE

<https://soundcloud.com/djliveammo27>

Now he spreads the love through minimal tech the sound he has been in love with as he moves the crowd on the dances floor it lights him up inside to see you dance.
