Glue @ The Horse & Groom, Shoreditch, 22nd May with The101Connection!

Glue is back in May welcoming the early day's of summer with a storming lineup and a night of solid party beats! Heading up the party will The101Connection a DJ pair who've emerged from the breaks scene with a stomping style that mashes up hip hop, funk and breaks into an all consuming beats monster.

We've also got Milky Joe - radio DJ, techno and breaks monster and all round superstar. You do not want to miss his set!

And as always the Glue's residents, Hell Yeah and Bump will be filling out the lineup with there unique charms and special tunes. Hell Yeah will be dropping his mix of electro, breaks and rave noise which always goes down a charm whilst Bump will be playing out a slightly deeper, techier selection to help get the party started!
