A little about me...

Originally from Upstate New York, I was raised in Orlando, FL and have lived in the area ever since.

My first job was at a popular Ice Skating Rink that I used to frequent as a Teenager. It wasn't long before my "Radio Voice" was discovered and I was promoted to the Rank of DJ in 1997. This is where I first got my hands dirty on some vinyl.

I started off buying a lot of Progressive House & Trance, but seeing as how Florida has a pretty solid Breaks scene, it was only natural that I became interested in Breakbeats. Spinning records was just a hobby shared in a bedroom or the occasional House Party with my friends, especially DJ 24, for many years until in 2005 I discovered iBreaks and Internet Radio. With the Breakbeat Fire inside me burning hotter than ever, It was in 2009 that I made my Internet Radio Debut on www.SoundCheckRadio.co.uk. In 2010 I joined the Lineup on www.NuBreaks.com where I currently play a weekly radio show "Rated-R", as well as the many infrequent "FiLLinTheBlank" Sessions.

ReFiLL, Rated-R is a weekly Breakbeat, Electro, Dubstep, Drumstep, Drum & Bass show broadcast Live every Friday, 5p EST / 2p PAC / 2200 GMT on www.NuBreaks.com as well as my very own website, www.ReFiLLradio.com, where you can download many of my show archives for Free.
