Oldboy Selecta: DJ Audit (aka Justin Stirling from the Payback Project) & Mr Fudge (aka Yusuf Akhtar from Purephunk recordings), were former flatmates in Canada's West Coast town of Kelowna. These two veteran vinyl addicts shared a common interest in old school funk, golden era hip hop, breaks and drum 'n 'bass. It was not until 2005 when Audit had relocated near Auckland, New Zealand; and Mr Fudge had relocated to Seoul, Korea -that these two artists began collaborating on projects. Their sound is a combination of old school hip hop, funky breaks, fat basslines with a cup of kung fu j!
