Jprime (aka Jeremy Atkinson) hails from Vancouver Island, but currently resides in Squamish, BC, Canada. He holds down a residency at the O.P. Nightclub in Squamish, and has played alongside the likes of DJ Czech, opened for hip hop artists like Sweatshop Union, played a multitude of outdoor shows, late night parties, and special club nights.

His main style is nuskool breaks, but he can rock pretty much anything...he thinks it's important for a DJ to be flexible in styles. Jprime enjoys playing alot of hip hop, and underground stuff, as well as house and electro.

Jprime also does some producing, as he is trying to develop his own sound. Check out his tunes, and let him know what you thought!
