

Audio-Junkie New Zealand

Posted by Audio-Junkie - 2010/12/21 07:28

Hi..

Im A DJ From New Zealand been djiing for about 5 years ..Breaks for about 3

I Have played a few small club avents here but the scene here is small so you have to really work on being heard..

I Love the music it rules my life...

I have a website www.Audio-Junkie.com

I have been lucky enough to come across nubreaks and enjoy listining to alot of the Djs that play here..
Breaks for Life

I Love all things Breakbeat...The guys here are Fantastic ,helping me out and sorting me problems...I feel lucky to be here to be able to play along side them...I have mad respect ..

I also am a big online Gamer ACB being my fav..If im not online with music im on my PS3...i have a large family so its lucky i have a decent P.A so i can turn it up and drown out all the background noise..lol

Its thanks to DJ Dezaster that im here so i give thanks to him for introducing me to NuBreaks...

Im a Little crazy at the best of times and dont get a chance to stand still often....but i always find time for the music...

Ten years ago, I was a fatty love to eat sweets. I make up my mind to lose weight for many times, but all of them are failure. After that, I tried the meizitang botanical slimming and meizitang. I keep fit with diet to lose weight, two months later I really be a slimmer! I think it is the best diet pills like botanical slimming soft gel.
