Hey everyone to the nubreaks family. I am the new addition to nubreaks. My name is Jordon and I am hear to bring progressive breaks to a whole new level. I will be doing shows on sunday. Not sure about the time slot yet but i will soon know. I been djing or attempting to dj for over 4 yrs now. I love all breaks of all sub-genres. Progressive is my main passion as of today. Feel free to message me and ask me questions ill be happy to answer them. i do do some producing as thats where my most passion is. Check out some of my latest tracks in the making are posted on www.souncloud.com.isjordon. I have many other tracks i have accomplished but since my lack of subscribing to soundcloud i had to delete them for room for others. Bare with me and ill have others uploaded. Feel free to follow me on soundcloud and hope you enjoy the soft melodies and rythmatic rythems of progressive breaks on my sunday night chill sessions.
