

LAST EVER INFERNO SESSIONS SHOW!!

Posted by sk2 - 2012/05/28 19:26

Ezz all crew

The next Inferno Sessions show on Monday 11th June 2012 will not only be the 5th birthday show but will also be my last show here at Nubreaks.

Nubreaks.com had only just been ressurected when I joined in 2007, the radio station was still in its infancy & I was priveledged enough to be invited by Kostek to join the handful of DJ's already representing.

The last 5 years here have been amazing, I've enjoyed every minute of every show, have enjoyed being a part of the team here at Nubreaks & have enjoyed watching the station grow & flourish but sadly the time has come for me to take some time out & concentrate on my job & family.. thats not to say that I won't ever come back & may even do the odd cover show here & there.

I will still be throwing the odd mix up on my pocast & soundcloud pages so please subscribe & keep a check on those, will fire links up on facebook/twitter etc.

So please join me on 11th June at 7pm (gmt) for the 5th birthday & season finale of the Inferno Sessions show where I will be bringing out as many of my personal favourite tracks from the last 5 years that I can fit into 2 hours.. will be a blast!!

Don't forget this coming Monday for the 5th birthday & final Inferno Sessions show!!

I've spent the last 2 weeks going through every track I've ever played on the show, vinyl & digital & picked out a stack of what I consider to be the very best, so the last show will be the best of the best of the Inferno Sessions.. make sure ya there!!

This is so sad but will, at the same time, be so awesome..... Gonna miss you so much man, it's been a helluva ride. Not goodbye, just... later. Please record bc I will be at work and my phone doesn't play sound anymore.

BIGGUPZ TO THE ONE LIKE SK-2 !!!!!!!!!!!
