

Hate Month-end Pushes

Posted by FullTorQ - 2012/07/30 14:39

I just got the phone call, we get to stay late today and tomorrow to try to hit an un-manageable goal for the end of the month. I was even told if I have to stay til the sun goes down to stay....

There is a possibility that I might be a little late for my show tonight. I am going to try to get everything out and done quickly today but I am not sure how long it will take. Hopefully I will not even be late but just in case wanted to give you all a heads up.

Thanks for the heads up!!

Did you have to work late tonight as well?
