Mud, Mud, and more Mud

The First Muddy Glade Festival has gone, but the mud has not gone yet from my equipment, my clothes... and it will stick for a long time in my brain...

It has been a special and beautiful experience... even in this muddy state...

It has been really nice to meet so many friends, new and old... we are a lovely family!!!

Check all the picture I've done on:

Precision Cuts is Back... this is the 3rd time for Tam & Jem on the Highheels Sessions... Great DJs and good friends... cannot wait to see them again...

Tam is Confirmed, Jem should be back from Ibiza... let's hope in a new Decks&Fx Performance

Glade has not been really good for me on the food side... just a couple of English Breakfast and a sandwich... and more more more Mud...

The Mud has disturbed a bit my stomach...

No Recipe this week...
