Posted by Jūsme - 2007/07/31 15:37

Hey, thought I'd set up a lil forum blog to keep you posted on whats happening on SugaThomp! We'd massively appreciate any feedback you can give us!! Dont be shy!! If you've any ideas on how to improve the show, suggestions, pet hates etc, get it down here aaayyeee :rainfro:

Here's my verdict on SugaThomp! Session 2....

must not... :0P haha!

well this time other than successfully drinking a large vat of wine and getting drunk on a school night, the SugaThomp! laydees managed to connect to the server (always a bonus), get the levels together sharpish and although evil xfader was still upset (should have a fully functional mixer by next show! :phew:) I think it went reasonably well!

absofreakinlutely massive shout to all who've lugged in to our first two shows and joined us for the bikini banter! haha! Apologies to for cutting EBW8 a bit short, you guys were right it is a quality moment and should not be dissected!! :spank:

Also i just wanna put in a cheeky massive thank you to Andromeda for the heads up on Unique 3's rather sumptuous "Rocks The Bass" ooh and kostek for letting me sexually molest him with cyber fruit...not your average boss is he really? werd anyhoo...moving swifty on...my set tracklist holding residencies with the prestigious DOGMA & SPECTRUM crews, FREEMAN I think you'll agree is indeed a force to be reckoned with...

As some of you found out SugaThomp! didnt exactly go to plan last show. Due to buffering, mixer implosion and general technical booness I had to abandon the show...apologies :(

After much fixiness and todays successful test run, SugaThomp! is good to go on 12th DECEMBER 7-9 pm GMT as scheduled for the airing of FREEMANs mix!! 8)

After much bouncing and general pointy dancing at SugaThomp! Towers for beat testing purposes, general consensus is this mix is an absolute scorcher!

If you dig this, keep em peeled in feb for the release of Nick's massive double header 12" single "Mind Control/ Toaster" (good yes good) and a spleet new mix also coming out on Passenger in the form of "Breakbeat Bass Vol 3"....

At the grand old age of 18, Northie is now finally legally allowed to rock out the planets Clubs armed with his own uniquely built battle weapons of breaks, funk, hip hop and electro and is rapidly gaining the respect from the club circuit he so massively deserves!!

Northie is no stranger to dancefloor devastation though, make no mistake!! with an array of pretigious private parties, shows, charity events under his rekkid box, and not forgetting taking Australia's DJ competitions by storm, he's left heads turned all over the Central Coast!!

Dont let his young years fool you, Northie does indeed mean business!!!
