

CHEW THE FAT @ THE END // 11TH JULY 2008

Posted by Fat! - 2008/06/17 05:56

http://i151.photobucket.com/albums/s144/Chewthefat/CTF_Jul08Back500x700web.jpg

IN DA MAIN ROOM...

EVIL NINE

RADIOACTIVE MAN

STREETLIFE DJs KID BLUE

SIGNAL DRIVERS

IN DA LOUNGE – Eden Collective... presents

KRAAK & SMAAK (Jalapeno)

CH!CO (Diff'rent Strokes)

COOL UNCLE & BROKEN BONES

DTISM. COLLINS 303. RYU

£12/£8 NUS; 11pm-6am

The End, 18 West Central Street, London, WC1A 1JJ

Info: 0207 924 1333 / www.thefatclub.com

Dress code: Trainers OK

Capacity: 1,000

July sees another top line-up as Chew the Fat! Mash up the styles in the main room, while the Eden Collective bring their eclectic blend of party vibes to the lounge.

EVIL NINE – Marine Parade's finest join us on the back of their hugely successful international tour. Their distinctly individual sound continues to defy categorisation and has become a staple of shaking dancefloors the world over. Such eclecticism is exemplified by the breadth of collaborations on their highly anticipated second LP, which includes the likes of the Autocratz, No Surrender, and hip hop legend, Beans.

RADIOACTIVE MAN – (aka Keith Tenniswood) is becoming somewhat of a dance music hero. Through combining breaks and beats with atmospheric synths, smooth, simple melodies and bad-ass rumbling bass lines, Tenniswood brings all that is good about electronic music together.

STREETLIFE DJS - Described by DJ Mag as 'The UK's very own 2 Many DJs', these boys are hot property. A Streetlife DJ set can take you from Altern8 into Depeche Mode, Gangstarr into Daft Punk, Adonis into The Who, all of which will have the special re-edit treatment to give it their unique Streetlife touch. Through cutting through funk, disco, techno, house and electro; these guys are producing some of the most cutting edge electronic music around.

SIGNAL DRIVERS – This pair of Australian's have been rocking the clubs around the world with their sexy booty shaking style. Expect Big bad sub bass laced with squeaky squelches and the sassy vocals at their Chew the Fat! Debut.

Not forgetting resident the ever dependable KID BLUE in support!

EDEN COLLECTIVE...

Hosting the lounge this month is the Eden Collective, whose blend of NU Jazz, breakbeat and electro house at their East London loft parties are fast becoming legendary. Headlining is one of the best things to come out of Holland since Heineken, KRAAK & SMAAK, strong string of boogie-licious releases have spurred an interest from the likes of Pete Tong and Laurent Garnier. Support come from Different Stroke's Ch!co as well as Cool Uncle & Broken Bones, DTISM, Collins 303 and Ryu.

For all press enquiries: Rory Natkiel – T/F: 0207 924 1333 / E: rory@thefatclub.com

=====