Posted by phloax - 2009/02/17 13:08

Just a few show updates from The Nazty Boys. We have some guest mixes coming up from stellar producers. First up on the list we have Farace, Sunday March 8th. Kid Digital is currently working on a mix, as well as others. Also we are going to be doing some giveaways soon from one of our clothing sponsors Saint Nick. Got some hot t-shirts out for the guys & the gals. When more info is available I will let you guys know. Big ups and I'll see ya on Sunday!
