You don't want to miss Warrior Breaks tonight from 9-11PM CST. I have a special guest and dear friend of mine by the name of TDBZ aka Ted Beezy coming over to throw down a one hour set of straight sickness!! We will be running the live video stream as well so no telling what might go down. :p

Exploding onto the dubstep scene in 2008, TdBz has been a relentless force at the forefront of the Houston Dubstep scene. Never compromising his love for the heaviest sounds around, TdBz's mixes are always certain to bring the crowd to the bassbin with his extensive selection and contagious enthusiasm for the sounds. TdBz is sure to please even the most finicky crowds around.
