

NEUTRALIZE ON HIATUS

Posted by RoboThing - 2009/11/27 08:05

Hello all,

Unfortunately I am going to have to quit Nubreaks for a while. I am moving back to Seattle in February and I have very limited time. I feel that the quality of my shows is suffering because of it.

So hopefully I will be able to fill a timeslot when I get sorted out back in the states. Thanks to all the listeners, see you next year :]
