

Yo! Hi from the past

Posted by dignan - 2017/03/07 14:37

Heya, saying hi. Remembered my password, hadn't been around in a while. Was on here back before this place even became a .com

Glad to be back, seems like there's some good shit coming out recently, excited to get caught up. Still spinning the classics from '93-'02 , of course!

Been asleep raising my kid alone the past decade, awake and full of passion. Lets go!

rock on and keep those beats broken
