

Solartron grew up in the 80's and 90's listening to all types of music which sparked a flame that could not be stopped. Then in 2006 he acquired his first production software and began to unleash the madness. Signing on in 2009 with a brand new electro label known as Subcircuit Records he released his first club banger "Destroy The Planet EP" with great response he has been working non stop to produce more new tracks that are sure to devastate the dance floor. If you don't have the Destroy The Planet EP you can get it HERE. For more info on Solartron
