RELEASE DATE: November 1st, 2010

Written and produced by BASS-STAR-DOS.

BSD's debut album "Malditos Bass-Star-Dos!" will be released on their own label Machine Muzik. A new stage from which they displayed to the global electronic music scene what they are capable of doing, within and outside the Breaks, the genre that has introduced them so meteoric.

"Malditos Bass-Star-Dos!" has been over a year in the making in which slots machine has captured BSD's open minds and obsession with attractive sounds. In this album you will find tracks clearly influenced by the purest Elektro-Breaks of the early decade ("EBM", "Elektro-Life"); casual and fresh sounds characteristic of Tech-Funk ("Joe Jacks", "Overestimate", "Hard 'n' Bass", etc.); Oldskool impressive percussions ("Total Cucumber"); as well as tracks inspired by Bassline and NuSkool Breaks predominant in the UK ("Everybody Scream", "You Must Find Strength"). In addition, BSD wanted to honor one of their sources of inspiration in this adventure in Breaks music, as in the case of "Party Groove", a production subtitled as "Breaks Phenomenon" honoring the NuSkool Breaks classic "TSUNAMI ONE & BT : Hip Hop Phenomenon [Marine Parade] 1999."
