

Having returned to the beginning, you dive into memories of the past. All the joys and sorrows as well as the most cherished childhood dreams flash before your eyes. The feeling of euphoria makes you think that you can change the world around with your own imagination. You can be a warlock again.

Friends, for you not to feel sad this autumn, Calligraphy presents you a magical track by Windom R. Atmospheric ambient, smoothly flowing into psy breaks, will take you to your personal space, where children's openness to the world is interlaced with the universal wisdom.
