

Girls Breakout, brought to us by The Darrow Chem Syndicate is another masterpiece. The Syndicate keeps adding amazing talent to its ranks and this release is no different. Veteran duo Huda Hudia & DJ30A give us some electronic goodness straight out of the future. Girls and boys will be getting on the floor and rocking to this one and it sneaks up on you and then gives you a tingling sensation all over your body with smooth synth lines and dirty bass. The newest member to the syndicate is Hankook. This man needs no introduction. In this release he brings us deep filtered bass lines that shake you to the core. The vocal stabs are set perfectly within the accentuated drums. This one is filled with subtleties and intrigue which make it a very classy tune.

Nipponeer Records being based in Tokyo, Japan; was founded by Hiroshi Fukuma in 2003. This is the 29th release of the label, while the first EP came out in 2009 - aiming to reach a place of solely ageless and quality music, where time has got no dimension.
